STODDARD LIVES

Quarterly Edition - October 2022

STODDARD'S MISSION:

“To form and sustain safe, viable and caring communities for those in need”.

STODDARD BAPTIST HOME FOUNDATION, INC.

120th Anniversary Celebration

On Friday, October 14, 2022, Stoddard Baptist Home Foundation, Inc. (SBHF) celebrated its 120th Anniversary. The theme, “Pressing Towards the Mark”, highlights Stoddard’s goal to continue its mission to provide excellent service within the aging communities. Since 1902, SBHF has served the needs of seniors, caregivers and the greater community with dignity, compassion and respect. Originally formed to provide eldercare services to African American Baptist ministers and their spouses, Stoddard now serves seniors of all religions, races and cultural backgrounds, generally from the District of Columbia and surrounding communities.

This formal/black tie celebratory event was held at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, D.C. Along with corporate sponsors, board members, staff, residents and Stoddard’s continual supporters, special guests included Mr. Ron Thompson, Program Director, Radio One, Inc.; Dr. Wayne A. I. Frederick, President, Howard University; Ms. Christy S. Coleman, Executive Director, Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation and Rev. Tony Lee, Senior Pastor, Community of Hope African Methodist Episcopal Church. Musical entertainment was provided by Mr. Steve Washington and Mr. Marcus Johnson with Crank and Flo. This was truly a wonderful celebration honoring 120 years of service!

Employee Spotlight

Frances Hancock
LeadingAge Intern at SBNH

This year, Stoddard Baptist Nursing Home sponsored Frances Hancock as its' Summer Enrichment intern. The Summer Enrichment Program is a 10-week immersive internship hosted by a LeadingAge member organization, from June - August, 2022. Frances joined a group of undergraduate and graduate students for a unique opportunity to obtain real world experience in aging services. This experience will offer leadership opportunities for students in aging services that ensures our field is a representative of the diversity that makes up our society. Frances was provided with mentors, meaningful work and access to a professional network that will assist her in reducing barriers to leadership roles within the field of aging. Frances Hancock was born and raised in Birmingham, Alabama. She majored in Anthropology and Psychology at Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri and is currently a student at George Washington University with the expectation of obtaining her Masters in Health Administration. She has expressed a desire to begin her Administrator-in-Training Program sometime next year. Her goal is to eventually become an Administrator in a Nursing Home!

DeLace Burch
Chief Human Resources Officer

DeLace Burch joined the Stoddard Executive Leadership Team in August 2022 as the Chief Human Resources Officer. Ms. Burch is a seasoned HR professional with more than 20 years of experience partnering with business leaders, driving change initiatives, serving as a resource and advocate for employees, and achieving organizational objectives. Development of creative solutions and the consistent use of a strategic lens are key strengths that she employs across multiple areas in the management of HR, i.e., employee and labor relations, training, development, corporate culture, change management, talent acquisition, Affirmative Action/EEO, etc. Ms. Burch leads a Stoddard team of human resource professionals who focus on recruitment, orientation and onboarding, workforce development, compensation and benefits administration, performance management, employee relations, engagement, etc. at a programmatic level throughout the organization.

Before joining the Stoddard leadership team, she previously held senior human resource leadership and consulting positions with Luminis Health Doctors Community Hospital, Lanham, MD; Washington Center for Aging Services, Inc., District of Columbia; SUPRA Home Care and Management, New Orleans, LA and Morgan State University, Baltimore, MD among others.

As a leader in HR, she states...“I strive to maximize the growth potential of my team while maintaining a clear and committed focus on achieving strategic business results.”
